

JOHN J. PUCILLO

Results-oriented senior professional in reliability, operations, and product management with over 40 years of experience in implementing top-tier programs and product strategies to meet business goals. Skilled in management, product development, and deployment strategies while enhancing workflows to minimize inefficiencies and costs. Proficient in data-driven analysis for ongoing improvement, process optimization, failure reduction, and effective client collaboration.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

True Reliability 02/2020 to present

- Principal Reliability Consultant

Maintenance and reliability consulting to improve reliable operations through optimizing work management, CMMS, planned work, proactive work, MRO, workflow processes and metric to effectively manage successful deployments.

Life Cycle Engineering 05/2019 to 01/2020

- Director, Advanced Predictive Maintenance

New products and services deployed to support LCE's Advanced Predictive Maintenance (aPdM) strategies. Developed the platform for the next generation PdM, IIoT, digital transformation, enhanced analysis, and asset condition monitoring.

SEAM Group LLC (formerly Predictive Service LLC.) 02/2007 to 01/2019

- Executive Vice President, Electrical Safety & PdM Operations

Business unit leader for Electrical Safety, Predictive Maintenance and LOTO offering. P&L Responsible for 118-person department with annual revenues of $20+ MM. Director, Product Development - New product development, marketing, collateral development, and product owner web-based and mobile software applications.

Rockwell Automation 11/1989 to 2/2007 (formerly Entek IRD International Corp. & IRD Mechanalysis)

- Director of Service Operations North America

Managed the P&L for a 75-person Service Operations group with annual revenues of $10 MM, including customer support, contracts, helpdesk, training, field service and contract services. Manager, Field Service – Delivery of PdM programs associated with conditioned-based maintenance programs. Developed service products, marketing content, sales collateral, proposal and sales initiatives.

Virginia Power - Chesapeake Energy Center 5/82 to 11/89

- Senior Engineering Technician

Responsibilities for all PdM activities, work collaboratively with the maintenance planning group, outage support/scheduling. Acquired all predictive data, analysis and balancing, online vibration monitoring and TSI systems.

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Executive Program 1999

WILLIAMSON SCHOOL

Associate in Specialized Technology Degree in Electrical Power Technology May 1982

SKILLS

- Reliability Engineering
- Work Management
- Failure Elimination / Root Cause Failure
- Equipment Criticality Assessment
- Life Cycle Asset Management
- Maintenance and Reliability Assessments
- Maintenance and Reliability Strategies and Deployment
- Business / Workflow Process Improvements
- PM Optimization
- Continuous Improvement Process and Tool Development
- Data Analytics
- Condition Monitoring Subject Matter Expert
- Certified Vibration Analyst
- Oil Analysis
- Vibration Systems design & installation expert
- Predictive Maintenance Program Design
- PdM Program Assessments
- Product Development
- Product Marketing
- Project Management
- Strategic Planning
- Return on Investment Projections
- Software Development Product Owner
- Mobile Application Product Owner
- MS Office, MS Excel Advanced, SharePoint, OneDrive

PERSONAL

Married with four children, good health, willing to travel or relocate

REFERENCES

Available upon request

Digital Resume - <https://www.truereliability.com/skills-experience-education>